Joseph Daniels, Little Rock District Operations and Civil Works Branch Chief was recognized as the Southwestern Division's Hero of the Month for his contributions as a lead Hydropower Acquisition Instructor, delivering critical training to all members of the project delivery team, and his demonstrated leadership.

His dedicated acquisition support of the Little Rock District's diverse mission portfolio continually ensures mission success. Daniels' commitment to acquisition excellence and his personalized PEOPLE-FIRST leadership style recently ensured the award of a highly complex, Stoplog Multiple Award Task Order Contract, civil works project, valued at $240 million, while simultaneously delivering critical hydropower training to 30 U.S. Army Corps of Engineers employees in March at the Division headquarters office in Dallas.

Daniels' selection as Hero of the Month exemplifies his dedication to outstanding customer service and acquisition support, along with his unwavering commitment to train, educate, and empower all members of the PDT to deliver the program.
